Introduction

Thank you for your enquiry regarding venue hire at the Beatles Story, Albert Dock.

The award-winning Beatles Story is the world's leading permanent attraction, dedicated to the lives and times of The Beatles and based in their hometown of Liverpool, on the UNESCO world heritage site at the Albert Dock. This unique exhibition transports guests on the incredible journey of the Fab Four and comes with 'Living History' audio guides, which are narrated by John Lennon's sister, Julia, and available in ten different languages.

We are also home to the British Invasion, which focuses on how 1960 beat groups conquered America. Co-curated by The GRAMMYS Museum, LA, this fantastic exhibition features memorabilia from Ray Charles, James Brown, The Rolling Stones and The Who to name a few. The British Invasion is based at the our Pier Head site, along with the innovative and exciting Fab4D experience and The Beatles Hidden Gallery, which is home to a rare collection of images taken by esteemed photographer, Paul Berriff.

Great British Cheese Board

Kick Ass Cheddar

A new cheese, Kick Ass is an extra mature strong cheddar cheese coated in black wax and proudly made in Chipping Lancashire by Procters Cheese, what sets Kick ass Cheddar apart from other Cheddar style cheeses is the fact that is a creamy cheese but with a pronounced cheddar taste. The Cheese has a mature, nutty bite but a unique smooth texture. Strong, creamy cheddar with a kick! Made with vegetarian rennet and pasteurized milk

Crumbly Lancashire

Award winning traditional Lancashire from Park Head Farm at Inglewhite near Preston. This cheese has a lovely dry, citrus taste and is matured for 4 – 6 weeks for a delicate taste. Made with pasteurized milk and vegetarian rennet.

Wensleydale with Cranberries

Mild, crumbly Wensleydale from Hawes blended with cranberries for a sweet fruity taste. Made with vegetarian rennet and pasteurized milk.

Colston Bassett Stilton

Stilton was first pasteurized as a type of cheese at the beginning of the eighteenth century. It was given its name by the village of Stilton, where it was first traded. Stilton now has protection by a certification trademark which means that today the world famous cheese can only be made in the three adjacent counties of Nottinghamshire, Derbyshire and Leicestershire. Colston Bassett Stilton is the only stilton still made completely by hand, it has a smooth creamy texture with a complex blue taste. Made with pasteurized milk and vegetarian rennet.

Quality cheeses from a local supplier, served with cheese biscuits, apple, celery, grapes and our homemade chutney
