Activity:

Brian Epstein, the manager of The Beatles, owned a record store named NEMs Records. Records were large circular disks which played songs through a record player. Each record would have a label on with the record label design (who the music artist was contracted to), the name of the album and a list of the songs.

Task:

Can you create your own record label for your own favourite albums?

Resources suggestions:

Paper, Coloured Pencils, Felt Tip Pens, Coloured Paper
